

GRAND CANYON UNIVERSITY™

Memorandum of Understanding First Responder Appreciation Scholarship

Congratulations on your decision to continue your educational goals with Grand Canyon University. In keeping with the University's long-standing tradition of providing excellent educational programs, we are excited to offer you the First Responder Appreciation Scholarship. This scholarship is only valid for applicants who are currently employed in the following occupations, submit a complete application, and commit to continuous enrollment:

- Police Officer/Sheriff
- Fire Fighter
- Corrections Officer
- EMT/Paramedic
- 911 Dispatcher
- Border Patrol Officer

By participating in a Bachelor's, Master's, or Doctoral degree program, or single/non-degree course through our online offerings, Grand Canyon University will offer you a 10% scholarship off the catalog tuition rate per course for your program. This scholarship will be applied at the same time the tuition charges occur. New students will see the scholarship applied from the beginning of their program. Continuing students will see the scholarship applied beginning with their next pay period as this scholarship cannot be pro-rated back to the beginning of their program. Students using only tuition reimbursement from their employer will have their per-course payment deferred until 70 days after the course start date. Should a tuition reimbursement student decide to take out financial aid, the payment deferral will be revoked. (See the University Policy Handbook for more details.)

We are pleased to extend this scholarship to you, however, you must meet these minimum requirements; In order to remain eligible for this tuition discount you must also maintain continuous enrollment in your program of study. Continuous enrollment is defined as no breaks greater than 14 days unless an approved leave of absence has been granted by Grand Canyon University. In an undergraduate program, you must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (minimum 2.0 GPA) as indicated in the University catalog throughout your program; in a graduate program, you must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (minimum 3.0 GPA) as indicated in the University catalog throughout your program.

By signing this document, you understand that if you are unable to start your program, this offer will no longer be valid and the scholarship will not be applied. This scholarship cannot be used in conjunction with any other GCU scholarships/awards. This scholarship will be applied toward your tuition only, and you will not receive funds in excess of your charges.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge that all prior scholarships and/or special tuition offers are null and void. The University will honor the Memorandum of Understanding with the most recent issue date.

NOTE: This MOU must be attached to your application for admission for it to be valid regardless of signatures or any oral statements made.
